

ERP calls for different operations and applications in different industries. Each industry has their own drawbacks and plus points in dealing with the enterprise applications.

Business drivers of ERP include those factors that influence the company's trade and stake holder's value. There are several of them both internal and external.

Rewaa take several factors into account before in order to sell his service to the industries. These aspects have been substantiated by business case ERP. This is analyzed from the implementing company's perspective:

Rewaa has provided and developed In-house ERP solutions for small and mid size industries such as

- â€¢ Cotton Industry:
- â€¢ Retail
- â€¢ Automotive
- â€¢ Hospitality
- â€¢ Pharmaceutical
- â€¢ Travel and Transport Industry
- â€¢ Real Estate
- â€¢ Mills

Our practice offers a convenient â€œone stop shopâ€ for all of your Tier 1 ERP needs including business strategy consulting, package implementation, upgrades and migration, as well as on-going maintenance and support.

We can also help you to modernize your enterprise applications by deploying the latest service-oriented architectures and to transition smoothly to Web-based systems and solutions, such as:

- â€¢ Web interfaces to legacy systems
- â€¢ Portal/Website/ASP design and implementation
- â€¢ Intranets and knowledge-management systems
- â€¢ Design and implementation of B2B exchanges
- â€¢ Supply-chain Integration
- â€¢ Enterprise Applications Integration